

CHERRY CANKER

Amber gum can be seen oozing from affected bark, which results in darkened sunken areas of the stem. Affects cherries and the rest of the Prunus family.

The best method of treatment is to prune out all infected wood back to healthy tissue. Burn the prunings.

To spray use traditional copper fungicide, Dithane 945 or Bordeaux mixture.