

SAWFLY

Brown corky scars are seen radiating from the calyx end of fruit. The grubs feed on the core of the fruit generally causing it to stop growing.

To control you can spray with derris or pyrethrum at dusk a week after petal fall and again 10 days later.

Clearing up debris in the autumn such as fallen leaves and prunings will also help.